3. What were the specialities of the wealthy young man who approached Jesus?

The wealthy man was sincere and observed all the commandments. He wanted to know his deficiencies. At the same time, he considered his wealth more precious than everlasting life.

4. What was the reason for Haman's hostility towards Mordecai?

When the King appointed Haman as the prime minister, he became very proud and wanted all except the King to kneel down before him in respect. Mordecai did not kneel accordingly. So Haman developed hostility towards Mordecai.

5. Which were the three occasions during his public ministry, when Jesus gave prominence to Peter?

The three occasions were when the daughter of Yairos was raised, at the time of transfiguration and at the time of prayer in Gethsemane when three disciples were taken with him and when two disciples were sent for preparing the Passover, Peter was included..

PART VII. ANSWER ANY TWO (Three or more sentences)(2×2.5 = 5marks)

1. Explain how the church resembles Mount Sinai.

In obedience to the command of God, Moses went up Mount Sinai while people remained in the valley praying after purifying themselves.

Likewise, in our church, the place where people stayed praying is the Prakaram (Nave) and the place between the people and mountain represents Haikala (Kesthuma or Chancel). The mountain represents the Madbaha (Holy Place). The smoke rising from the censor, the candles that burn with dazzling light, the sounds of hand bells and Marvahsa resemble the flash of lightning and thunderbolt, sound of bugle, smoke etc on Mt. Sinai.

2. What was the vision Peter had before he went to the house of Cornelius?

Peter saw the heaven opened and something like a large sheet, being lowered to the ground by its four corners. In it were all kinds of four-footed creatures and reptiles and birds of the air. Then he heard a voice saying, “Get up Peter, kill and eat”. To this Peter replied that he had never eaten anything profane or unclean. Again he heard a voice “What God has made clean, you must not call profane.” This was heard thrice and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

3. What were the temptations to which Job was subjected and what message do we get from the book of Job?

Job's animal wealth was stolen. Attackers killed his servants, his house collapsed in storm and the sons and daughters were killed. Satan tempted Job by causing serious illness and sore boils from the sole of his feet to the crown. From the book of Job, we get the message that man is unable to understand all the plans of God and that there is a definite reason behind all the divine plans. God does not tempt anyone without reason, and he will bless the man who accepts the will of God and submits.

4. Briefly describe the contributions made by Mor Ephraim to the church.
(any 4 points)

(1)Mor Ephraim was the interpreter of the Holy book from the book of Genesis to Revelations and(2) tried to keep up the true faith through literary compositions.(3) He had made deep studies and composed books on inseparable divinity-manliness of the Lord Jesus Christ, on the Holy Church, Apostles, martyrs resurrection and the specialities of the church. (4)He wrote a large part of the periodic prayers of the church and taught that the chastity of the mother of God should be remembered with devotion and respect. (5)He composed many sonnets against heretics. (6)He wrote many sweet songs for use in worship and wrote on spiritual responsibilities and gospel interpretations.
